A PROGRESSIVE CHURCH. A PROGRESSIVE CHURCH.

A man was asked, "What does your church stand for." He replied, "My church does not stand; it goes." The great difficulty is that the church is 20 busy standing that it does little going. Should a Rip Van Winkle return today he would find universal change, save when he entered the church. There, the chances are, he would hear very much the same sermon as the one to which he listened the Sunday before his memorable trip to the Catskills. The church must get into harmony with present-day life.—Unitarian Publicity Committee.
